CITY AUTHORITIES TO OPPOSE MEETING ON P. E. FARES

Councilmen Object to C. of C.
Calling Public Discussion
With Railway Officials

Opposition to the Chamber of Commerce granting a hearing to D. W. Pontius, general manager, and Frank Karr, attorney for the corporation, until the railroad commission has finished with its rate rehearing, was voiced by members of the city council attending the luncheon meeting of the Chamber board of directors here this noon.

The written request of Mr. Karr for the opportunity of talking over the "grave economic problem" was considered by local officials as only an opening for the interurban to throttle municipal bus line competition.

Officials convinced it was stated that the Glendale city fathers are now convinced the people want some real relief from the present passenger tariff between here and Los Angeles and that competition offers the only solution.

"The Pacific Electric cannot lower the rates," was a point scored against the hearing. "The whole question is up to the railroad commission for decision." In other words, the city officials do not want any "broken wire" to mend in their battle front.

Forty merchants and professional men, members of the Glendale Merchants Credit association, sat down at luncheon yesterday noon after singing a stanza of "America," under the leadership of H. S. Webb, vice president, who acted as chairman in the absence of C. E. Neale.

Mr. Webb had brought a bust picture of Lincoln to grace the table and called attention to the import of the holiday. After discussing routine business matters under the leadership of Secretary Frank H. Pilling, the chairman had the assembly sing the first stanza of "America" as a closing number for the benefit of those who arrived late.

Over $14 was cleared at the valentine party given last night at the Congregational church, and which was in charge of Mrs. Peter Hanson. Mrs. Olive M. Bradley of La Crescenta, this morning was registering voters at the city hall.

Tick Tock! Dickory Dock! News Clock Placed in Drydock

It is no longer "four thirty" by The Glendale Evening News clock. The usually accurate timepiece which graces the front of the office is gone—and there is "no time at all."

However, that is only a temporary condition for the Western Union is installing some new "ticks" and the Glendale Plumbing company is preparing a new waterproof case.

It seems that clocks, especially those controlled by batteries, do not get along well in the same case with water.

Therefore the trouble with the time until repairs are made.

Invitation to Come to Glendale Is Sent 3000 Miles by Phone

Mrs. E. D. Hamlin and Mrs. D. W. Hepburn wives respectively of Hamlin & Hepburn, subdividers, enjoyed an unusual experience on Sunday.

For some time past they had been corresponding with their aunt, Mrs. F. M. Case, of Rochester, New York, telling her of the beauty and advantages of California in general and of Glendale in particular. Mrs. Case indicated in recent letters that she was considering coming to the coast.

Mrs. Hamlin and Mrs. Hepburn decided that the call of the human voice across 3000 miles of space would do more to crystallize Mrs. Case's plans than anything else they could do. Accordingly on Sunday they called her by long distance telephone. The line was clear and Mrs. Case's voice could be heard distinctly and the message from Glendale, "Come out to California," went back into the frozen east.

And the best part of it all was that Mrs. Case promised to come. Mrs. Case has been engaged in business in Rochester for over thirty years, and has amassed much property. Her relatives want her to come to California and enjoy it.

Bartlett has been appointed chairman of the judges committee.

The first ten records of the set of forty selections are being played every afternoon this week beginning at 3:30 o'clock in the music stores of this city. G. A. Carney arrived in Glendale last Saturday from Greene, Iowa, to be a guest at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Carney, 116 South Louise street. He expects to locate here after longing for a southern California home for more than a decade.

The changes which have taken place in Glendale in the thirteen years since Mr. Carney's last visit were almost unbelievable. Only the Pacific Electric station and the Glendale Sanitarium were landmarks by which he remembered this to be the same town he had seen once before.

E. U. Emery Home Is Visited by Robbers

The E. U. Emery home, 329 North Kenwood street, was partially robbed early this morning.

At 2 a. m. Mrs. Emery, who was awake, heard a noise as though someone was endeavoring to get into the house. While she was listening for footsteps, she heard an automobile pass and a few seconds later another machine seemed to start from the front of the house.

This morning the family found that someone had entered the house by prying up a window on the front porch. Two purses, each containing a small amount of change, an overcoat and pair of gloves belonging to Mrs. Emery were missed upon investigation. The overcoat and the empty purses were found between the E. A. Case home and the E. L. Fox home, a few doors away later in the morning. It is believed they were thrown there when the housebreakers feared capture in their "get-away."

'CHARLIE' PADDOCK WOMAN SPENDS 42 HONOR GUEST AT YEARS IN JAPAN HI-Y DINNER AIDING MISSIONS

World Champion Sprinter Tells Boys What's Necessary to Win in Sport Life

"Charlie" Paddock, world's champion sprinter, was the guest of honor and principal speaker last night at the Hi-Y dinner in the dining room of the First Methodist church.

"If you play the game of life as you play on the athletic field, you cannot help but win," Mr. Paddock told the seventy-five or more high school boys present.

One of the same fundamental traits of character which enables an athlete to achieve success, according to Mr. Paddock, "also brings success to the business and professional man. Success means more than shaking the spirit of self-sacrifice—the spirit that is willing to give all to win all."

Two Things Necessary
"You have to give up a lot of things to be successful as an athlete. To be a real athlete two things are necessary: Condition and sportsmanship. One is sacrifice of body and the other is mental sacrifice. Condition means something more than training the night before with a battle the next day. Sportsmanship means something more than shaking the hand of the man who has beaten in a race."

A number of examples of sportsmanship on the athletic field were described vividly by Mr. Paddock who commended highly the increase in American sportsmanship.

Dr. Wood, president of the Glendale Hi-Ys, acted as toastmaster. Roy Kelley, secretary of county Y.M.C.A. work in this vicinity, had charge of the arrangements.

Others Make Talks
Brief talks were made by C. W. Ingledue, 501 East Wilson avenue, and Dr. J. Anderson, 102 West California avenue.

Mr. Paddock was introduced by Howard L. Butterfield, assistant coach at Glendale Union high school, who declared that Mr. Paddock was an example of the highest type of moral and physical training for the athletic field.

A collection of $10.23 was made as a donation to a family in China.

HUGE SHIPMENT OF SILVER PASSES THROUGH L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Under the care of four heavily armed guards and transported in a car equipped with a modern machine gun, more than a quarter of a million dollars in silver bullion passed through Los Angeles today over the Southern Pacific. It is understood the cargo arrived at New Orleans from silver mines in South America and is being shipped to San Francisco.

RALPH OBENCHAIN COMPLETES HIS MOVIE FEATURE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—It became known here today that "Steady Ralph" Obenchain, who has been called a modern Sir Galahad, and a "man in a million," because he hurried to Los Angeles from Chicago to aid his former wife, Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, when she was indicted jointly with Arthur C. Burch for the murder of her sweetheart, J. Belton Kennedy, has completed a film featuring events preceding Mrs. Obenchain's arrest on the murder charge.

LAWYERS PICTURE MRS. OBENCHAIN WOMAN SCORNE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Preparations to picture in words Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain as a "woman scorned," in order to establish a motive for her alleged participation in the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, young Los Angeles broker, on August 5, last, were made by prosecution attorneys as her trial on the homicide charge was resumed today in Judge Reeve's court. This they planned to do through introduction of the letters, telegrams and notes that were interchanged between Mrs. Obenchain and Kennedy. On Thursday, it is planned to take the jury to Beverly Glen where attorneys for both sides will examine and cross-examine witnesses at the scene of the shooting. On the following day the court will visit the downtown hotel where Burch had been stopping during his visit here, from which, it is charged, he kept close vigil over the Kennedy offices which are directly across the street.

MABEL NORMAND DEMANDS TAYLOR SLAYER BE CAUGHT

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—The demand of Mabel Normand that the murderer of William Desmond Taylor must be found and punished and the announcement of Adolph Zukor, president of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation, that his company will "leave no stone unturned" to bring the perpetrator of the crime to justice, were the chief developments today in the most baffling mystery in years. The triple investigation carried on by the police department, the sheriff and the district attorney, proceeded. The sheriff's office continued to work on clues that involve a known powerful clique of drug peddlers whose pernicious activities have become firmly seated in certain sections of Los Angeles and Hollywood, and in the belief that this band, headed by a woman, was connected in some manner with the slaying of Taylor in his bungalow on February 1. The investigation of District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine and his aides was being conducted under cover today. Officials stated that their preliminary survey of the case and interrogation of all persons known to have been even remotely connected with the murdered (Continued on page 2) man is still far from completion. Several "mystery" witnesses were interrogated by the district attorney yesterday, including two women, one of whom was handsomely gowned and wore expensive furs. WOOLWINE DEVELOPS DEFINITE THEORY, IS RUMORED

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—A report which was without definite confirmation gained circulation here today that District Attorney Woolwine and his aides while claiming they are "virtually up against a blank wall" in their investigation of the mysterious murder of William Desmond Taylor, famous film director, have been working for days on evidence which needs only additional corroboration to place them in a position to take decisive action in unraveling the case. The report that the director of the probe "working under cover" and with great secrecy had developed a definite theory of the slaying was coupled with the report that the investigators have received information suggesting that Taylor was slain by black-mailers when he fought to protect the good name of an innocent motion picture star.

ARTHUR J. BALFOUR GIVEN 'CHEERING' WELCOME

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Premier Lloyd George acted as cheer leader with all the pep of an American college youth when Arthur J. Balfour came home from the Washington conference today. When the famous diplomat stepped from the train at Waterloo station a great shout of welcome went up in which George Harvey, the American ambassador to Great Britain, joined. All members of the cabinet were present. Mr. Harvey and other diplomats were among the notables who assisted at the welcome. Thousands of civilians were gathered in the station and streets flanking the station. Lloyd George, alert, chipper and smiling, was in the best of spirits. As soon as he caught sight of the returning diplomat his arm went up and the cheering followed. Balfour is in good health. He smiled and waved acknowledgment. Neither the king nor the queen was present, but the earl of Bradford was present as personal representative of the king.

TWO MORE KILLED IN RIOTING IN BELFAST, REPORT

BELFAST, Feb. 14.—Two persons were killed in street fighting this morning, bringing the dead in the city and suburbs up to seventeen in the last forty-eight hours. A woman and four children were the victims of clashes between Orangemen and Sinn Feiners. Bomb explosions and rifle fusillades rattled through the streets during most of the night. The Ulster border has been "sealed" to civilian traffic, according to information from Monaghan. Two heavily-armed forces, one of republicans, and the other of Ulsterites, are lined up facing each other along the Ulster-free state line. No shots have been exchanged but the soldiers are refusing to allow civilians to use the highways crossing the boundary. Twenty persons were wounded in Belfast throughout the night, several of them policemen who were trying to rout snipers. The latest children to succumb were Catherine Kennedy and Eliza Chanlon. They had been wounded in a bomb explosion. Fourteen others were hurt by the same blast. A man was killed and two special constables wounded in an unusually heavy outbreak of shooting before midnight.

THAT'S ALL

Dealing With Criminals
Genius Gets 'Kicked Out'
Opportunity for Advertising
Better Buy a Bull Dog

By Gil A. Cowan

Interest to Glendale is the report that an attempt was made to wreck a Union Pacific train near Riverside.

It erases some of the stigma from this fair city for having a similar occurrence along the Southern Pacific right-of-way two weeks ago.

But it does indicate a serious situation facing peace officers in southern California. Something must be done to effectively deal with criminals. Perhaps it is state police, perhaps it is reorganized police and sheriff's departments—barring none and excluding none, yet attacking none in particular.

However, more can be wrought by righteous lawmakers than peace officers can do in eternity. That is to end the indeterminate sentence, cut off the parole and stiffen the punishment for crime.

Judge and jury can be merciful enough, but the parole breaker seldom shows respect for the mercy collectively granted under the lenient law of the land.

Picture D. W. Griffith as a type-setter, also as a reporter.

Then as an actor and a motion picture producer.

We have one of more typesetters—although that is a crude word nowadays—in The Glendale Evening News office who someday may equal Griffith's fame.

We have a reporter or two, too, who may achieve success in the cinema or other industries. No reason why they shouldn't do so. But the higher you go in an organization the less opportunity you have in achieving success outside of that particular and usually limited field.

Looking back over the lives of the great industrial leaders today you will notice that most of them got their start by being kicked out of a job in early life and being forced into business for themselves.

As a peanut butter Edison was a first class aviator. But he has astounded the world with his great inventions and discoveries.

Henry Ford had a hard time earning a living as a mechanic, yet no one denies that he is an industrial genius when it comes to making Fords.

Get the inside history on Frank Vanderlip, Charles M. Schwab, Daniel Frohman, or a thousand and one lesser luminaries, and the story will be about the same.

The kindest act ever done a genius is to kick him out, clear out a fat rut.

An opportunity affords itself to the Glendale Chamber of Commerce. The Jewel City Four—a male quartet—leaves this city soon for a tour of one of the large vaudeville circuits.

Why not equip these boys with literature about the fastest growing city in America so that they may call on commercial clubs, etc., leaving a little more than music in the memories of those they meet.

The Auto Club is all excited! File the numbers off of your locking systems, says a warning to motorists, because the master lists have been stolen.

After you have done that, forget the number, lose the key and kick yourself for the excitement to be created.

Better yet, buy an auto theft signal or some similar device which is not operating under the Yale patented key system, the code for which was stolen in Philadelphia.

Another way is buy a car light enough that it will be possible to place the engine in the vest pocket and attend the theatre with assurance.

Or buy a bull dog!

NAPLES REACHES MILLION

NAPLES—Including her suburbs the city of Naples has passed the million mark in population. Within the limits of the city itself are 145,625 families totaling 725,096 inhabitants, according to the census just completed. These figures show that Naples has passed Rome by more than 100,000. The increase in population has caused much crowding and unusually bad housing conditions.

The growth of the business has necessitated a Glendale office and from this office will also be handled all kinds of Glendale property including houses and lots, business property and acreage.

This will be the choicest property that Hamlin & Hepburn have offered, they declare. It is located on the north side of Glendale Road, with a beautiful view of the entire San Fernando valley.

Wisconsin Picnic to Be Held on Thursday

Let's see, do badgers live in trees or burrows? Well, anyhow, those of this species, who live in this vicinity and who were forced to take shelter in their habitats on account of the recent rain, may now come out in the sunshine.

The big annual Wisconsin picnic and reunion, which was postponed as a special courtesy to Jupiter Pluvius, will be held Thursday in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles.

Col. Frank True, president of the organization, says this is the first time he ever heard of badgers being afraid of the rain.

As evidence, the ship's crew had four turtles, caught in a net without reducing the speed of the vessel. Shells of the turtles measured three and one-half feet in width.

Strange Stone Image Is Taken From Mine

PARSONS, Kans.—Dug out of a coal mine, 200 feet below the surface, a strange stone image rests today in the home of Sam Jenkins, a miner living between Welch and Blue Jacket, across the Oklahoma line.

Is it the petrified remains of a prehistoric man—the likeness of the first American caveman?

Or is it merely a strange freak of nature in moulding the human image during the formation of the coal strata?

The image is of black rock. Jenkins, digging coal in the end of a drift mine, uncovered it. It is a trifle more than the average human size, showing a deep barrel chest, heavy-muscled arms and legs and a big, well-rounded head, with flattened forehead and features and powerful wide jaws. The neck is thick and short, the head almost nestling between the huge shoulders.

The image is imperfect, for there are no hands or feet. Before discovering the image Jenkins, working along the vein of coal, unearthed the footprints of some huge prehistoric animal. The prints were perfectly formed in the shale and were in the same location where remains of a prehistoric animal were unearthed a few years ago.

Hundreds of persons have flocked to the miner's cabin to look at the strange image. The image has the appearance of a man squatting, as though before a fire.

Ex-Soldiers Trained to Operate Vessels

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The goal of a merchant marine manned by exclusively American seamen is drawing near, according to reports on the subject recently compiled.

During the past few months more than 55 per cent of the seamen placed on American vessels by the Shipping Board's Sea Service Recruiting Bureau were Americans, it was stated today. When the bureau first began to function less than 10 per cent of the men placed were Americans. As time passed and the idea of having all-American crews aboard ships flying the United States flag grew the number increased gradually.

Last fiscal year 68.8 per cent of the men placed were Americans. From July to November, 1921, the number increased, so that now there are ships which have 100 per cent American crews aboard.

The final goal is to have every ship manned by all-American crews, with the shore establishments equally representative of the United States.

MEMORIAL FOR WAR DOGS

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y.—A monument to commemorate the war dogs who died while serving in the trenches of the French battlefields will be erected in Hartsdale canine cemetery, the only animal burying ground in America. The memorial will cost $2,500.

New Epidemic of Flu Is Laid to Housing

NEW YORK—New York is in the throes of another influenza epidemic, due, according to Health Commissioner Copeland, to the housing condition. Little effort is being made to combat the malady.

On one day 225 cases of influenza and pneumonia were reported, a larger number than for any single day since the subsidence of the 1919 epidemic.

"The city," said the commissioner, "is worse off today than it was during the terrible epidemic of 1918, because of the housing situation." During the week of January 14 to 21, 1,581 deaths were reported, as compared to 1,481 deaths the previous week, an increase of one hundred deaths. This increase is largely due to diseases such as influenza and pneumonia. The mortality from influenza has steadily climbed since the last week in December.

Dr. Copeland has notified the quarantine authorities to notify the health department of any influenza cases on incoming ships.

TEA DRINKING DECREASES

LONDON—Consumption of tea has materially decreased during the year just ending. Jobbers attributed a large part of the decrease to the influence of American troops stationed here en route to France during the war, who refused to drink tea.

Southern Gateway to Glendale Weekly Business Review

Community Center Offers Conveniences to Southern Section

The community idea has spread rapidly during the past few years in American life and institutions. Groups of people have banded together to concentrate their efforts in a single direction and to join in a common cause in practically every locality in the United States. Community and neighborhood shopping centers are springing up in every city, and the group of stores which has been established in Glendale at the corner of San Fernando road and Brand boulevard is one of the finest examples of modern community centers to be found anywhere.

To George M. Karr of the Baldwin Shirt company belongs the credit for initiating the movement for the establishment of a group of modern stores here, for the convenience of the residents of this part of Glendale. The building and construction of these new store buildings was handled through the W. I. Heitman company, realtors.

Located at this new community shopping center is the Baldwin Shirt company, manufacturers of men's custom made shirts. Wilson & Bell, who conduct a general hardware store; Tompkins Drug Store, a pharmacy; R. M. Daniel, dry goods and notions store; Heal & Mentzer, the Gateway realtors; Lee & Nuhn, who conduct the Gateway bakery; C. Caswell, who conducts a market; Franklin & Spafard, grocers; Martin's Floral shop and Geo. Taylor's fruit and vegetable store.

In addition to the above, a soda fountain and lunch stand, as well as several other lines, will be represented in the near future, making it one of the finest examples of modern community centers to be found in the west.

SPECIAL BARGAIN OFFERED

Business at the Gateway real estate office is warming up with the weather, is the report from Mr. Heal and Mr. Mentzer, the proprietors. They are offering as a special bargain this week a full half acre home site Highland avenue at a price of $2,300, and $500 cash will handle a full fifty foot business lot on South Brand at the price of $6000.

According to Heal & Mentzer, offerings of this kind are bound to bring more business to this already busy corner and judged by the number of calls, the demand for Glendale property is increasing, particularly for the Gateway section, they say.

STICK IS 300 YEARS OLD

William Darden, Jr., 204 East Cypress street, is only a week old, but he has a walking stick, already. It is an heirloom which has been in the family for the past 300 years and originally came from Ireland. Mr. Darden, Sr., is a cobbler in W. L. Floyd's shoe repair shop at 1503 South San Fernando Road.

J. C. BARRETT IS WON

J. C. Barrett, who recently visited southern California, is now back in Mountain Home, Idaho, winding up his business affairs preparatory to coming with his wife to live permanently in Glendale. He expects to join his twin brother, A. F. Barrett, in the operation of the Triangle filling station at 1700 South San Fernando Road.

H. G. Ross Directs Optical Department of His New Store

The new store of H. G. Ross at 1522 San Fernando road, has been fitted up handsomely, and is one of the most pleasant and attractive jewelry and optical establishments in this section. Mr. Ross' optical department, which has just been opened, will be under his personal supervision, and he has had many years of experience in the optical line, he states.

Mr. Ross specializes in the exercises of the ocular muscles, a subject of which he has made an extensive study. There are many different instruments for the treating and testing of the eyes, for testing the strength of the different eye muscles, and for determining visual diagnosis. The laboratory contains every necessary apparatus for the proper grinding of lenses, he states.

One of the many interesting instruments in the optical room is the amblyscope. This highly complicated and scientific instrument is used for training the eyes to fuse images and for bringing both eyes up to equal normal vision.

Mr. Ross has also specialized in the repairing of watches and looks forward to a large amount of business in this department.

PLUMBING IS GUARANTEED

Sanitary plumbing in this country today has become one of the fine crafts of the land and every detail is carefully looked after by those familiar with and painstaking in their work. In plumbing a little mistake may cause unlimited trouble in the end and it is with this thought in mind that such plumbers as are employed by J. Satow, the guaranteed plumber, undertake all work, he states. Mr. Satow is located at 1513 1/2 San Fernando Road. His telephone number is Glendale 746-J.

B. G. JACKSON PLEASED

"There sure is a live bunch at the city hall," remarked B. G. Jackson, proprietor of the Jackson auto supply store at 1600 South San Fernando Road, yesterday. He is well pleased at the service given him last week. His light meter was installed in his new home, 216 West Eulalia street, before he had time to have temporary service connected.

R. M. DANIEL IS SATISFIED

R. M. Daniel, proprietor of the new Gateway Dry Goods store, 1727 South Brand boulevard, stated yesterday that he was satisfied with opening business Saturday. By the end of this week he expects to have received all of his stock. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel are from Carbondale, Colo., and are living at 1008 East Lexington drive.

BACK FROM HOLLYWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Thorson, who are stopping for the winter at 1521 South Central avenue, returned today from Hollywood where they spent the week-end.

Tread Worn Down on Your Tires? If So, Better Watch Out

Strictly speaking, a non-skid tire, the tread of which has worn smooth, is no longer a non-skid tire, as the wet pavement during the recent heavy rains have vividly illustrated.

"Yet any number of car owners," says A. C. Barrett of the Triangle Service Station, 1700 San Fernando road, "continue to flirt with accidents by using tires that have worn to a smoothness that actually invites slipping."

"Many times it is a case of neglect. When originally purchased these tires probably had non-skid treads that were ample insurance against skidding on wet pavement. But the owner fails to realize that steady wear has worn down the tread until its former non-skid properties are no longer apparent. During months and months of dry pavements he has lost sight of the demands of wet weather driving and the first rain finds him entirely complacent in the fact of real danger, giving no thought to the condition of his tire equipment so long as they remain properly inflated."

The Triangle Service Station is of real service to motorists in solving their tire problems and Mr. Barrett states he would be very glad to look at tires and make suggestions as to their condition and care, as well as replace them with new ones if necessary.

LEAVE FOR SALT LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bentley of 1361 North Columbus avenue left last night for Salt Lake City. Mr. Bentley is general manager of the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company, 460 West Los Feliz Road. He will attend a convention of the National Lumbermen's association. They will be gone about a week.

PROPERTY IS PURCHASED

Mrs. Mabel Parker and Mrs. Roy Gallup, both of 1262A South Brand boulevard, have purchased property in the new Glendale Heights subdivision from the Elsa-Jane Realty company, 1503 South Brand boulevard. It is understood that Mrs. Parker intends to erect a duplex on her new acquisition.

SEE EXHIBITION FLIGHTS

Exhibition flights of a new double motored triplane were witnessed Sunday at the Rogers Aviation Field by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gabel and their two sons, Ed and Russell, of 1412 1/2 South San Fernando road. Mr. Gabel commented upon the silence of the two eight cylinder engines.

FRANK DICK RECOVERING

Little Frank Dick is now recovering from pneumonia at his home, 424 West Windsor Road. His daddy, R. W. Dick, is foreman of the new Baldwin Shirt factory, 1725 South San Fernando Road.

INSTALLING HIS FIXTURES

L. S. Lipson of Tujunga is still busy installing the fixtures in his new cleaning and tailoring establishment at 1410 South San Fernando Road. He has decided not to manufacture caps as he originally intended.

CLINTON A. BURROWS ARGUES IN FAVOR OF BUS SYSTEM

Most Commuters Are Loyal to Business Men of Glendale, So Writer Declares

Editor The Evening News—I happen to one of several thousand people whose business and place of employment is in Los Angeles, but for obvious reasons prefer to live in Glendale. The rate question on the Pacific Electric is of vital importance to us. I have been commuting for several years and have observed the cars during the rush hours are overcrowded and are now almost unbearable because there has been no increase of service to accommodate the increased population of this city. Notwithstanding the insufficient service and heavy patronage, the Pacific Electric has been granted by their servants, the railroad commission, a very great and unjust increase in fares which is working a great hardship upon the residents of Glendale whose business takes them into Los Angeles.

Favors Bus Project

I have been much interested in the bus proposition and believe it is to be the logical and modern solution of the passenger traffic question.

I have heard it hinted that some of the business men of Glendale are well pleased with the high rates, expecting it will keep some of the Glendale people from going into Los Angeles to do their trading. From my personal experience, I believe most of the commuters are loyal to the citizens in business in their home town, but I believe it is also true that these same commuters will resent any support given these high rates of unjust tribute imposed upon them by local merchants that they may force some unwilling customers to trade with them. On the contrary, I wish to say that it is quite as easy for us who commute and are now loyal to Glendale merchants to do our trading in Los Angeles, for we must go forth and back daily regardless of the unjust tribute, or live in Los Angeles.

Low Fares, More People

Unquestionably favorable fares and transportation will encourage many more people like ourselves who have our business in Los Angeles to make Glendale their residence.

Frankly, I am convinced the policy of supporting these high fares by local merchants in order to force a few unwilling customers to trade with them is very short sighted and will mitigate against their own interests by causing many who now would trade with them to transfer their trade to Los Angeles and hinder the rapid growth of Glendale. I, therefore, urge the local merchants to use their influence that the Chamber of Commerce will take action favorable to municipal bus transportation.

Sincerely,
CLINTON A. BURROWS, M. D., 228 North Jackson street.

Gospel Fisherman Sermon Topic by Rev. H. G. Preston

"A seven reel study of a gospel fisherman" was the topic of Rev. H. G. Preston Sunday morning at the Pacific Avenue Methodist church.

"Andrew was not a preacher; he was not an organizer; he was a not a leader," declared Rev. Preston. "Peter and John were individualists—great leaders. Andrew co-operated. We are beginning to understand today the overwhelming value of co-operation."

"I would not go across the street to shatter any man's idol, but I would go around the world, if God would let me, to save a soul." He might well have caught this ideal from Andrew, the fisherman of Bethesda.

"Andrew was a soul winner. He went and told his brother Peter and not many days after Peter was winning thousands. It is as true today as then. There is no end, when you bring some one to Jesus and there is no beginning until you do bring some one to Jesus."

"Andrew was busy and faithful at his work when called. And these are the sort of folks Jesus wants. God wants the biggest and busiest men in America for the biggest job in America."

"While Andrew is under the shadow of his greater brother, Peter, still he is one of the twelve men to have conferred on them the Distinguished Service Cross of Jesus Christ from which all other service crosses have derived their symbolism."

"More souls can be saved by simple men like Andrew than by a few men like Peter. It is the personal work that counts."

World Mining Slump Hits Alaskan Fields

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Alaska's mineral output for 1921 had the lowest annual value since 1904, according to an announcement by the Geological Survey of the Interior Department.

The mineral output of Alaska for 1921 was valued at about $16,109,000, as compared with $23,303,757 in 1920. The decrease was attributed to a decline in all forms of lode mining, especially that of copper.

The stagnation of mining in Alaska, officials assert, is but a reflection of the world-wide depression of the industry and is not caused primarily by local conditions.

Minerals to the value of $478,000,000 have been produced in Alaska during forty-two years of mining, the Interior Department's statistics show.

Stop "dosing" rheumatism. It's pain only. St. Jacobs Oil will stop any pain, and not one rheumatism case in fifty requires internal treatment. MABEL NORMAND IN 'MOLLY-O' SHOWN AT T. D. & L.

Feature Comedy and Story of Love Declared One of the Best Ever Produced

"Molly-O" is the attraction at the T. D. & L. theatre today. It is a feature comedy equal to anything in the mirth-provoking line that has ever been offered to the public.

It is a picture of a love story as sweet and pure as anything that has ever been written.

It is an emotional dramatic offering that in some scenes transcends the best that has ever been put on the screen.

And it is a melodrama in which the villains are confounded, in which the hero licks a villain bare-handed, and which concludes with a thrilling aeroplane chase after a fleeing blimp.

These are all combined into the feature "Molly-O," the attraction produced by Mack Sennett and starring Mabel Normand. Because the action runs from broad comedy to the deepest pathos, and from a supper in the tenements to a grand ball in the most fashionable hotel in the city, and because none of the good characters are wholly angels, it is the most human story that has found its way to the screen in many months.

Miss Normand Stars
Miss Normand easily carries away the star share of commendations but it is chiefly because she has the greatest variety to do, for every player, and there are many of them, establishes a high mark for histrionic ability.

Jack Mulhall makes a really handsome lover, and as a vamp Jacqueline Logan establishes a new and more pleasant style. George Nichols as Tim O'Dair and Anna Hernandez as Mrs. O'Dair portray a married couple whose counterparts can be found almost anywhere. Albert Hackett, Eddie Gribbon, Ben Deely, Gloria Davenport, Carl Stockdale and Eugene Bessner are others in the big cast that deserve mention for the agreeable performance.

And the town—all Glendale is talking about it—will try and crowd into the T. D. & L. theatre to see it, it is declared.

Ralph Allan says: "Molly-O" has been brought to the T. D. & L. theatre for the entertainment and enjoyment of the public of Glendale at a tremendous cost—however, the regular T. D. & L. theatre admission.

There will also be presented a Tony Sarg comedy, scenic, kinograms. The entire musical comedy for "Molly-O" has been especially arranged by George Olse, who must be complimented for his unusual ability and fine performance.

SOFT DRINK PROFIT IS HIGH

BOSTON. That a 400 per cent profit is being reaped by some local dispensers of soft drinks on one popular concoction was revealed by a Boston newspaper that has just completed an investigation. While many soft drink dispensers returned to the old five-cent scale when the revenue tax was removed many are sticking to war-time prices. One drink composed of syrup and carbonated water costing under 2 cents a glass, is being sold in many establishments for 10 cents.

Golden Glory of Southern California Will Be Well Presented at National Orange Show to Open at San Bernardino on February 17

CARMEN ARSELLE

Who is holding down part of the fruit at the Twelfth National Orange Show, which opens at San Bernardino on February 17 and lasts until February 27.

Secure in the center of a small valley, fringed entirely with verdant foothills and snow capped mountain ranges, stands San Bernardino, the home of the National Orange Show. The setting for the world's greatest citrus fair could be in no more appropriate spot.

This year's orange show will be held for ten days, commencing February 17. Orange growing districts from all sides of San Bernardino are shipping fruit to prepare displays which promise to surpass all past attempts.

Hardly could a more suitable setting be found for the annual orange exposition. The snow-clad mountains in the background immediately show that the arid reaches the highlands while the valleys bask beneath a semi-tropic sun.

The location of the show occupies another place of beauty. This year the fair will be located in a large park at Urbina Springs. Three large tents have been obtained to house the show. Outside, beneath the trees and around the shore of a miniature lake, will be located the carnival concerns.

The entire setting is among tropic palms and typical California shrubbery, flowers and trees.

Inside, the tents will reflect the golden glory of California. The entire decorative effect will be carried out with California poppies and statues of the famed grizzly bear.

The poppies will be used to add a floral note to all exhibits and carry out the far western idea.

With the yellowish glow cast by reflection from the shining citrus fruit, the interior of the exposition is a virtual bower of gold. This year's show is expected to present the utmost in decorative effects. Expert consultation has been utilized in an effort to give the final touch of beauty that will thrill thousands of visitors.

The decorative plan has not been forsaken in the industrial sections and this time it is planned to clothe the manufacturers' exhibits with care. No part of the three tents will be neglected in the decorative work. The effect produced is expected to be unusual.

Plans have been made with such a degree of care that it is thought that no show of any nature ever staged will equal in beauty the effect produced at the Twelfth National Orange Show.

It's Quiet Day and Then Somebody Steps on Buzzer and-Bang!

"Competition among salesmen is the life of trade," mused Salmacia Brothers of the Glendale Music company, 109 North Brand boulevard. That was one of those dreary days last week.

"Let's close up a little of that prospective business," said Frank Salmacia and forthwith his brother Vincent got Dr. Henry R. Harrower to buy the beautiful Marshall & Wendell Ampico grand which he had treasured for an honored place in his home.

"That'll never do," said "Doc" Hurd, as he stepped out and closed with J. J. Burke, the contractor, for a Chickering upright.

Vincent Salmacia is to be outdone by no one when it comes to a day's business so he made Robert Jensen stop long enough to order a period model Victrola.

All this time "Bill" Bode of the instrument department watched and waited. The son of Elder E. L. Neff of 115 West Garfield street, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church, insisted on having one of the Martin C melody saxophones he had read about in The Glendale Evening News.

While making that sale Mr. Bode learned that the son of Elder J. W. Christian also wanted a saxophone—for the boys are going to form a quartet. Another sale was rung up on the cash register and two more in the offing.

"That's what I call a real day's business," said Frank Salmacia with a smile that would chase Old Man Gloom up Glory creek without paddle.

PAID NOT TO REMARRY

CHICAGO—Provided she does not remarry Mrs. Elsie K. McNett, widow of Attorney Charles S. McNett, of Evanston, will receive the whole of his $125,000 estate, according to the will admitted to probate. In the event of her remarriage Mrs. McNett will receive, under the provisions of the will, only $50,000.

ATTACKS ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—An attack upon the Harding administration, which he describes as its continuation of the "watchful waiting" policy toward Mexico was made in the Senate by Senator King, Democrat, of Utah.

King declared that 800 Americans had been killed in Mexico while the "Republican administration failed to remedy the situation," and charged that $500,000,000 worth of American property had been seized and its owners deprived of reparation through the administration's "hesitant policy."

JAMES NEILL GOES TO NEW YORK—30 LONG YEARS AGO

Few Lines in Savannah Paper Recall Early Experiences of Glendale Resident

A local subscriber to the Savannah Georgia Press, received a copy of the January 30 issue of that newspaper Saturday, which contained in the "Thirty Years Ago Today" column:

"James Neill, formerly of this city, who is acting with Crane's combination, leaves tonight for New York."

The James Neill referred to is none other than the famous actor who is now residing at 125 West Loma avenue, Glendale, where he has lived continuously for the past ten years. Mr. Neill, who is one of the oldest actors, in point of service, in the United States, is a native of the Georgia metropolis, having begun his stage career in that city forty-two years ago.

After getting his start with a Savannah stock company in 1882, Mr. Neill was given his first promotion when he signed a contract with the W. H. Crane company of New York, with whom he played as leading man for two years. Mr. Crane, who has been a close friend to the local actor since that time, is now spending his retired life in Hollywood.

With Early Favorites

Among many other old time American stage favorites with whom Mr. Neill was associated in the early days of his career were the well known Mannie Madden, Fiske, whose dramatic presentations have thrilled theatre-goers of this country for the past fifty years. Miss Fiske, who is now more than 70 years old, is still appearing in one of New York's leading playhouses.

Following several years' engagements in New York Mr. Neill organized the Neill stock company, which played dramatic and semi-dramatic productions throughout the east and middle west for twelve years. The principal runs made during the company's itinerary were several seasons each at Denver, St. Paul, Baltimore, Rochester and Buffalo.

Prior to entering motion pictures nine years ago, Mr. Neill spent several seasons with dramatic stock companies in Pacific coast cities. During this time he was engaged as stage director of the then popular Belasco theatre in Los Angeles for two seasons. At the time he changed from the legitimate stage to the cinema producing game he was stage director at the present Morosco theatre.

In Picture Productions

Although he is now playing with the Jesse Lasky company, Mr. Neill has played several seasons each with Goldwyn, Kalem and Universal organizations.

Mr. Neill is a great "at home" actor, most of his life on the stage having been in connection with stock companies where, in his own words, "long seasons in one city permitted me to make a home and keep house." Besides being one of the foremost actors of his type in the movies Mr. Neill is one of Glendale's leading boosters, his ten years here having made him one of Glendale's most ardent enthusiasts.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—Henry Ford, through his accredited representative, W. B. Mayo, chief of his engineers, has served notice on Congress that Ford's proposal to develop Muscle Shoals must be accepted in its present terms or rejected.

SMOKING CAUSES DEATH

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Eva Johnson, 72, is dead today because of her fondness for smoking a corn-cob pipe. INFORMATIVE BOOKS ARE PROVIDED AT BRANCH LIBRARY

Frederick Palmer Gives Clear View of World Affairs; New Fiction Received

New books recently released at the branch library says Charles H. Cushing, librarian, are the following:

"The Polly of Nations" by Frederick Palmer is a plea for clearer thinking in international affairs in order to avoid the recurrence of another great war.

"The New World of Islam" by Lothrop Stoddard deals with the Mohammedan revival and the solidarity of Islamism. It continues the line of thought commenced in "The Rising Tide of Color" by the same author which has been in the library for some time.

"Winston's New and Complete Atlas of the World," is a 1921 edition and contains maps of the whole world with boundaries as established after the World War with population figures from the latest authorities including the United States census of 1920.

"Bungalowcraft," "Select California Bungalows" and "The Wilson Bungalow Book" affords a large selection of choice plans with illustrations of the completed buildings.

For Nature Lovers

"With the Flowers and Trees in California" by Saunders will appeal to all nature lovers, as well as "Under the Maples" by John Burroughs. "Fair Lands of the South Seas" by Hall and Nordhoff is another delightfully written travelogue of that fascinating region.

"Trapping Wild Animals in Malay Jungles" by Meyer will be of interest to the sportsman.

"A Manual of Physics" by Crowther will be useful to the high school student in their work.

"Modern Methods in Nursing" by Georgiana Sanders is an up-to-date book on that subject.

A volume of James Russell Lowell's poems has been added to the library.

"The Real Japanese Question" by Kawakami gives the Japanese viewpoint in regard to this important matter.

"The 1920 Business Men's Laws of California" compiled by Lincoln, and the 1922 Glendale City Directory are two reference books that will be very useful.

New Fiction Received

"To the Last Man" by Zane Grey. "The Young Enchanted" by Wai-pole. "Alice Adams" by Tarkington. "This Man's World" by Comfort. "The Briary-Bush" by Floyd Dell. "Beggars' Gold" by Poole.

TALE OF FAR NORTH BY REX BEACH AT GLENDALE

"The Iron Trail" Is Picturized and Proves Full of Thrills and Healthy Action

"The Iron Trail," at the Glendale theatre, is action, thrill and wholesome melodrama from start to finish. "The Iron Trail" is one of Rex Beach's greatest stories and undoubtedly the best that has been produced in motion pictures to date. It is a narrative of adventure around the building of a railroad that runs up the Salmon River in Alaska and cleverly dodges around the glaciers that for a long time defied the efforts of the engineers to penetrate the rich gold country.

Murray O'Neil, the famous builder of railroads finds upon his arrival in Alaska that Curtis Gordon has a scheme started to build a railroad but learns that the plans cannot be successfully carried out and that Gordon's project will fail. O'Neil, disregarding Gordon's threats, starts construction work and immediately meets most determined opposition.

Treacherous Methods

Gordon resorts to trickery and treacherous methods and even sends for a newspaper writer to write up and blacken O'Neil's character. This newspaper writer proves to be Dan Appleton's sister and Dan is O'Neil's staunchest friend. The situation becomes more complicated because O'Neil has rescued Natalie, Gordon's step-daughter, from the wreck of a steamer off the Alaskan coast. This results in a crossed line of having two beautiful girls, each lined up in the opposite camp to which they are related, by family ties.

Interesting International News adds life to the program while the sparkle is provided by Harry "Snub" Pollard and Marie Musquini in "Lonesome Change." Large attendance attests the program's popularity.

HOUSEWIVES ARE WARNED

Peddlers probably are responsible for a number of small robberies in Glendale recently according to the opinion of Chief of Police Allen O. Martin. He believes that they use their trade as a blind in many cases and obtain information useful in the underworld.

"Housewives shouldn't be afraid of disturbing the police department when a peddler annoys them," declared Mr. Martin. "We would rather go on fifty wild goose chases than miss a chance to get a real criminal."

Michigan Farmers to End City's Flood Loss

DETROIT—Organization of a food exchange to help solve Detroit's food problem is anticipated as an outcome of a conference between representatives of 2,000 Michigan farmers and members of the Detroit Board of Commerce.

The farm delegates represented six counties adjacent to Detroit and discussed with board members the feasibility of putting into effect the recommendation of C. A. Bingham, former secretary of the Michigan
Farm Bureau, now director of the Agricultural Section of the Board of Commerce.

Complete facilities for the preservation and distribution of farm products is a part of the plan proposed.
Capitalization of $300,000 would be necessary to carry out the project, experts say. They are confident,
however, that the sum can be raised
and that Detroit will have a food exchange.

The fact that there is today a loss of about 40 per cent in handling foodstuffs from Michigan farms affords basis for the belief that such an organization as the food exchange can be formed, with profit, speakers
at the conference declared.

There is, too, the further purpose of saving from destruction the vast quantities of fruit and vegetables which have rotted on the farms in other years because current prices would not justify marketing them.

servers of the rules of sanitation.

REDUCED RATES TO BRING MANY FOLK TO SOUTHLAND

Railroads to Cut Fares Earlier Than Usual to Obtain the Summertime Visitors

C. A. Redman of 331 West Harvard Street, who is connected with the Union Pacific system passenger department at Los Angeles, states that eastern tourists contemplating coming to southern California this summer will find fares greatly reduced.

Beginning May 15—a little earlier than usual—the round trip from Chicago to the coast will be $86,
from Omaha and Kansas City, $72;
and from Denver, $64.

For those wishing to go east and return after June 1, the rates will be $106.80 to Chicago as compared with the present round trip fare of $144.26. Tourists to Kansas City or Omaha will get their fares for $87.60 while Denver passengers will go and come for $77.40.

"We need the people to see us in the summer time," said Mr. Redman,
"while the rates east will permit many families to visit friends and relatives during the vacation period.
The return tickets will be good for three months after the day the rates are effective."

PROHIBITION PROVES HELP

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—
Prohibition has made the California grape-growing industry, according to a declaration by Amadeo P. Gianni, president of the bank of San Francisco.

"The wine grape growers in 1921 got four times as much per ton for their green grapes as ever before.
More grapes are being sold now than before the United States adopted the Volstead act," he said.

DEPOSIT BOXES LOOTED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 14.—
Jewelry estimated as high as $100, 000 in value was obtained by bandits who looted the safe deposit boxes at the fashionable Washington Hotel and disappeared.

Wash silk stockings in warm blank water. They will last much longer than if washed with soap.

Noted Artists Promise to Aid Organ Fund

High notes do not make great singers, yet none will dispute the
fact that the average audience likes
the high note climax, and there are
very few really great vocal artists
who have not the necessary range, or
high notes, and use them when necessity demands. So when one speaks
of Bonci Roffo, Constantine, or La
Bonte, the proverbial high C is expected; and when delivered always meets with the marked approval and enthusiastic appreciation of Mr. and
Mrs. Musical Audience.

In the aria from Faust, which Mr.
La Bonte will sing next Sunday afternoon, at the Glendale theatre, also
in the quartet from Rigoletto, La
Bonte will use his silver-toned high
C.

For the benefit of the organ fund
of the Holy Family church, Rev.
James S. O'Neill, pastor, more than 1000 tickets have been sold throughout southern California; and the Glendale theatre will be taxed to
capacity judging from the success
of the first recital.

Harry Girard promises a program
of such musical excellence, that it will be beyond criticism, and who
will doubt him when one glances
over the list of his associate artists,
and take into consideration the
worthy object of these recitals?

TO AID EX-SERVICE MEN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—
Hundreds of destitute former service
men who were stranded after the armistice in Europe and Siberia, will
be brought home by the government
under provisions of a relief measure passed by the Senate. Wives and children of the stranded Yanks will also be brought to the United States
by the government. The bill authorizes the secretary of war to furnish necessary transportation. The measure, however, limits the relief
to June 30, 1922.

U. S. C. TENNIS TEAM HAS MANY GAMES DUE IN EAST

Welsh and Green Leave in April to Meet Schedule;
Some Sport Comment

By HOWARD MCGILLIS
Sporting Editor The Evening News

With a schedule of matches lasting over a period of two months and including some of the largest and most widely known institutions in the east, the University of Southern California tennis team, composed of Stanton Welsh and Paul Green, will leave Los Angeles about the middle of April for the most extensive athletic campaign that has ever been undertaken by a college from this section. The invasion will come to a close on June 28, when the Los Angeles stars will compete in the intercollegiate championship matches in Philadelphia.

The Trojan racket wielder's coming tour will be similar to the successful season of the Stanford representatives who last summer defeated a number of the strongest eastern teams. It is the general opinion among close followers of the Methodist institution that both Welsh and Green compare favorably on the court with the 1921 Cardinal squad and that they will win a large majority of their matches.

Following is a list of the colleges and universities which will offer competition for the Cardinal and Gold duo:

Arizona, New Mexico, Chicago,
Wisconsin, Milton (Wisconsin),
Michigan, Detroit, Annapolis, George Washington (Washington), Georgetown, Lehigh, Lafayette, Swarth-
more (Pennsylvania), Columbia, Princeton, Amherst, Williams,
Philadelphia College of Osteo-pathy, Massachusetts Tech., Hamilton (New York), Colgate, Syracuse, Middlebury (Vermont), Maine, Bow-doin (Maine), Bates (Maine) and Dartmouth.

New Material Developing

Numerous prospective Charlie
Paddocks, Fred Kellys, Bernie Wells, etc., who are cavorting on the cinder paths of the various high schools of this section, are already looking forward to the annual southern California track and field championship meet, which is scheduled to take place on April 22 at the Santa Ana high school field.

The site was recently chosen for the affair by a special committee representing the California Interscholastic Federation and composed of Seth V. Patten, Tommy Davis,

Women Barred from Bouts

A few of the radical rulings recently made by the newly organized Cleveland, Ohio, boxing commission include the barring of women from all indoor amateur and professional events, the prohibiting of boys under 15 years old to box and the discontinuance of allowing challenger's announcements from the ringside.

Would Revive Horse Races

Horse racing fans all over the country are interestingly focusing their attentions toward Tanforan, a suburb of San Francisco, where Rudolph Spreckels, well known sports promoter, and several partners are planning on the immediate organizing of a "non betting" racing club. Although the plan has been more or less unsuccessfully attempted in various coast cities during the past decade Mr. Spreckels is confident that his corporation will be able to "put it over."

The Pacific Coast Jockey club,
which is the name of the new organization, maintains that it can conduct racing meets "and obtain the interest of the public" without the gambling of former days.

Noted Artists Promise to Aid Organ Fund

High notes do not make great
singers, yet none will dispute the
fact that the average audience likes
the high note climax, and there are
very few really great vocal artists
who have not the necessary range, or
high notes, and use them when necessity demands. So when one speaks
of Bonci Roffo, Constantine, or La
Bonte, the proverbial high C is expected; and when delivered always
meets with the marked approval and
enthusiastic appreciation of Mr. and
Mrs. Musical Audience.

In the aria from Faust, which Mr.
La Bonte will sing next Sunday afternoon, at the Glendale theatre, also
in the quartet from Rigoletto, La
Bonte will use his silver-toned high
C.

For the benefit of the organ fund
of the Holy Family church, Rev.
James S. O'Neill, pastor, more than 1000 tickets have been sold throughout southern California; and the Glendale theatre will be taxed to
capacity judging from the success
of the first recital.

Harry Girard promises a program
of such musical excellence, that it
will be beyond criticism, and who
will doubt him when one glances
over the list of his associate artists,
and take into consideration the
worthy object of these recitals?

TO AID EX-SERVICE MEN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—
Hundreds of destitute former service
men who were stranded after the
armistice in Europe and Siberia, will
be brought home by the government
under provisions of a relief measure
passed by the Senate. Wives and children of the stranded Yanks will
also be brought to the United States
by the government. The bill authorizes the secretary of war to furnish necessary transportation. The measure, however, limits the relief
to June 30, 1922.

Alaska Facing Rush for Oil and Coal

By WARREN W. WHEATON
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON, D. C.—Aloof
Alaska faces another rush for wealth as picturesque as the famous dash for gold. It was declared today by Interior Department officials.

The barren wastes of the Far North country held unlimited quantities of oil and coal that will add unlimited millions to the country's natural resources. It was officially announced, and the Federal Government proposes to take early steps to develop the Alaskan area.

Immediate action to secure joint and reduced freight rates from the coast to the interior was taken under consideration by Secretary of the Interior Fall today following the exposition of the find to President Harding and cabinet officials.

Goaded to action by reports from Governor Scott C. Bone of Alaska, and a prospector named Smith, both of whom are now in Washington, the administration, it was learned today,
has promised to take the necessary steps to open up the Alaskan country.

Announcement was made that Dr.
Alfred Brooks, geologist connected with the Interior Department, who has made a thorough study of the far northern possession of the United States will soon leave Washington for Alaska to complete his survey of resources of the country.

"We place all possible reliance on the statements that unlimited oil and coal deposits are as yet untouched
in the interior of Alaska," declared department officials today. "A prospector named Smith, who is now in Washington and who has traveled twenty-two thousand miles by dog team under the Arctic skies in places that are yet unmapped, tells us of vast quantities of oil and coal that to be found in the barren wastes about six hundred or seven hundred miles north of Fairbanks and in the interior of the country."

"We feel that everything possible to extend transportation routes in Alaska to open up this territory should be undertaken, and the Interior Department believes that the northern terminus of the Alaskan railroad, now at Fairbanks, should be further extended.

"We are not inclined to feel that this find is a pipe-dream. It is still in the exploration state, and it may take some years to develop it, but the department is confident it is there."

Governor Bone is here to press
favorable consideration by Congress of legislation designed to liberalize laws for Alaska and make more solid its now characterized "chaotic system" of government.

Breaks Costly Window and Winds Up in Jail

PARSONS, W. Va.—Benjamin Harrison Bishop, twenty-four, took a sudden aversion to plate-glass windows the other day, so he gathered up a handful of "dornicks," commonly known as rocks, and started down
a main business street smashing costly windows along the way.

The cops started out after him,
but he eluded them. Then the aversion returned, and Bishop started out to smash more plate-glass windows in stores and offices. This time the officers took him in charge. He is now in the county jail serving a sentence for malicious destruction of property. In addition, he has been held for the grand jury under like charges.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder
Bothers You, Drink Lots
of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to lead your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys
and irritate the entire urinary tract.
Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts
which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys;
also to neutralize the acids in urine
so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Advertisement.
